How is your information used?

Under the Local Government (Access to Information) Act 1985, all representations received become documents which the public has a right to read and copy.

We collect information from you when you contact us about a planning or associated application. This includes contact through our website, by email, letter or telephone. When commenting on such applications, we do need your postal address to enable fair consideration of your comments. We will use your information to allow us to fully consider the relevant application. Comments on applications do not form part of the statutory register, and as such we will only retain these for up to four years following a decision being made unless an appeal is lodged. In order to ensure that no unnecessary personal data is provided to us, please consider the following:

- do not send us personal or sensitive information about yourself or other people in your correspondence;
- comments sent by post should ideally contain only your name and address, and as an attachment if sent by email;
- we do not require a signature on any correspondence you send.

You can find more information about how we handle your personal information by visiting www.southderbyshire.gov.uk/privacy.
