Details of the pre-application advice received

The proposals design with a flat roof would not be supported by Planning Officers in general because the host property has a pitched roof form and the proposed flat roof and would not constitute good design, however you do have permitted development fall back. Given that the host property is a semi –

7. Pre-application Advice

detached house, if the roof dormer would only add up to the volume of 50 cubic metres and if the materials are similar with the existing dwelling house than the proposal could fall under permitted development. Further information can be found in page 34 of the Permitted development rights for householders Technical Guidance 2019.

From viewing the plans, it is not clear what the proposed dormers volume would be, you would need to check this, if it meets the criteria set out in Schedule 2, Part 1, Class B of The Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 (as amended) it would be permitted development, however if it doesn't meet the criteria then it would require planning permission.

8. Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
